In search of analytic and harmonic functions

Pertti Mattila (University of Helsinki)

I shall review the process that lead in 2003 to Tolsa's solution of the Painleve problem on the geometric characterization of removable sets of bounded complex analytic functions in the plane. I shall also discuss more recent developments on the analogous problem for Lipschitz harmonic functions in higher dimensions.