

Functions of bounded variation and sets of finite perimeter in metric setting.

Nageswari Shanmugalingam
University of Cincinnati

Following the development of Sobolev type function spaces on metric measure spaces in the past decade, Michele Miranda proposed a notion of functions of bounded variation (BV) in the metric setting.

In this expository talk we will give an overview of the current state of knowledge regarding BV space, including sets of finite perimeter, Poincare inequality, and traces.