

Helsinki Analysis Seminar, 2013-11-18
Markus Glader, University of Turku
Abstract

QUASIHYPHERBOLIC GEODESICS IN SIMPLY CONNECTED PLANAR DOMAINS

In the article [Väi] J. Väisälä shows that in a general plane domain quasihyperbolic geodesics are unique if the quasihyperbolic distance is less than 2. Using the same method as in the mentioned article one can proof that in a simply connected plane domain quasihyperbolic geodesics are always unique.

REFERENCES

- [Väi] J. VÄISÄLÄ: Quasihyperbolic Geometry of Planar Domains, Annales Academiæ Scientiarum Fennicæ Mathematica 34 (2009), 447–473.