Introduction to LaTeX
Exercise Sheet 1 (Group 6)

Clifford Gilmore

28th March 2011

For the exercises the content text of the document is mostly up to you. The produced document should contain enough text to fill two pages. If you can't think of anything to write then you can find random text from Lorem Ipsum at http://www.lipsum.com/

1. Create a LaTeX document with the following:

   (a) Document settings: article, 11pt, A4 size paper.
   (b) A short piece of text of your choosing.

2. Add two sections to your document each containing:

   (a) Two subsections which in turn each contain two paragraphs.
   (b) The text should contain the following words: l'Hôpital, $100, \newpage, 15%, the elipsis character ... and LaTeX .

   Also add a table of contents.

3. Make a title for your document with the following values:

   (a) Today's date using the \today command
   (b) Your name for the author
   (c) Choose the title yourself

4. Make an enumerated list of your three favourite authors and a nested list of your two favourite books by each.

5. Include a verse of peotry in your document using the `quote` environment.

6. Include four lines of computer code in your document using the `verbatim` environment.