Introduction to LaTeX
Exercise Sheet 1 (Group 5)

Clifford Gilmore

1st April 2014

For the exercises you are mostly free to fill the content with any text of your choice. If you can't think of anything to write then you can find random text from Lorem Ipsum at `http://www.lipsum.com/`

1. Create a LaTeX document with the following:

   (a) Document settings: article, 11pt, A4 size paper.
   (b) A short piece of text of your choice.

2. Add the following to your document:

   (a) Two sections with section names of your choice.
   (b) Two subsections inside each section you created in step (a). The subsection names are again of your choice.
   (c) The subsections should each contain two paragraphs of text.
   (d) A table of contents to the beginning of the document.

3. Make a title for your document using the `maketitle` command with the following values:

   (a) Today's date using the `\today` command.
   (b) Your name as the author.
   (c) Choose the title yourself.

4. Make an enumerated list of your three favourite musicians and a nested list of your two favourite songs by each musician.

5. Include a verse from your favourite song in your document using the `quote` environment.

6. Somewhere in the document reproduce the following text in the output:

   (a) The text: l'Hôpital, $836, Fréchet, 45%, Jyväskylä, C:\user\docs\thesis.pdf.

   (b) Use the `color` package and include one line of blue text.
